

MAKING YOUR ART FASTER AND BETTER

DO THE BIGGEST CHANGES IN YOUR ART FIRST!

Be bold early and push the differences of Value and Design. Doing the big changes first help you more clearly see what to do next...

THE NINE BENEFITS

It's far better to work 30 minutes, 3 times a week, than just once a week for 2 hours. And, it's much easier to fit this time into a busy schedule. Put your art in a place where you can see it. Seeing progress helps you recognize change and accelerates learning.

- 1 Bigger changes are more noticeable.
- 2 Bigger changes make you feel more alive and engaged in your art.
- 3 Bigger changes helps you stay objective in your art.
- 4 Bigger changes speeds up process because you are right more frequently.
- 5 Bigger changes allows you to make better decisions because you are more clear.
- 6 Bigger changes makes it easier to see what is right or wrong.
- 7 Bigger changes once in place, make it easy to fill in with small details.
- 8 Bigger changes can be seen from a distance.
- 9 Bigger changes optimizes life too...

What are the big things I will choose to do this year? Imagining these will provide clarity in your life. Sometimes it is good to discern what is big and what should remain small.

THE QUESTION: IN YOUR ART AND LIFE, HOW CAN YOU MAKE CHANGES TO YOUR ART OR LIFE THAT ARE BIGGER AND MORE IMPACTFUL?

Dream big.

If you can imagine it, you probably can do it.

What are your big scary goals?
